

Attorney General Doug Peterson

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 8, 2017

Lincoln—Nebraska Attorney General Doug Peterson will be hosting a series of Mobile Offices in western Nebraska. The Attorney General and several members of his staff will be visiting the following communities:

North Platte Senior Center, Wednesday, September 13
Keith County Senior Center in Ogallala, Thursday, September 14
Scottsbluff Senior Center, Friday, September 15

During Mobile Office hours, representatives from both the Consumer Protection Division and Constituent Services will be on hand to personally meet citizens interested in submitting concerns to the Attorney General's Office. Citizens will also have the opportunity to learn how to protect themselves from identity theft, guard against scams and rid themselves of unwanted calls and junk mail.

Any questions regarding Mobile Office should be directed to Suzanne Gage, Director of Communications.
