

Attorney General Doug Peterson

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 7, 2018

Lincoln—On Monday, September 10, 2018, the Nebraska Attorney General’s Office will be hosting Mobile Office hours in Wayne inside the Wayne Senior Center (410 N Pearl Street #B) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

During Mobile Office hours, representatives from both the Consumer Protection Division and Constituent Services will be on hand to personally meet citizens interested in submitting concerns to the Attorney General’s Office. Citizens will also have the opportunity to learn how to protect themselves from identity theft, guard against scams, and rid themselves of unwanted calls. Many educational resources will be made available to interested constituents.

Also occurring the day of Mobile Office, Ryan Sothan, AGO Outreach Coordinator, will be visiting local schools to present on the topic of Digital Citizenship. Digital Citizenship is a presentation that helps students think about how to navigate the digital world by making safe, responsible, and respectful choices online.

Any questions regarding Mobile Office should be directed to Suzanne Gage, Director of Communications.
