Attorney General Peterson Announces $6 Million Settlement with Encore Capital, Midland Credit Management, and Midland Funding to Reform Debt Buying and Collection Practices

Lincoln— Attorney General Doug Peterson announced today that the Lancaster County District Court approved a $6 million, 42 state settlement with Encore Capital Group Inc. and its subsidiaries Midland Credit Management, Inc. and Midland Funding, LLC, one of the nation's largest debt buyers.

Debt buying involves buying and selling overdue debts from creditors and other account owners. Often purchased for pennies on the dollar, debt buyers seek to recover the full balance from consumers through collection attempts by phone and mail. Debt buyers, including Midland, also take consumers to court to collect the debts they purchase. When consumers are unable to afford attorneys or otherwise fail to defend themselves, debt buyers take default judgments – leaving consumers with damaged credit and sometimes garnished wages.

The settlement resolves the States' investigation into Midland's collection and litigation practices. Much like the conduct witnessed during the mortgage crisis, the agreement settles claims that Midland signed and filed affidavits in state courts in large volumes without verifying the information printed in them, a practice commonly called robo-signing.

According to Attorney General Peterson, "Debt buyers must be held to the same standards as any other creditor when providing consumers – and the courts – with accurate and truthful information."

The settlement requires Midland to reform its affidavit signing and litigation practices. Midland must carefully verify the information in affidavits and present accurate documents in court proceedings. When Midland files a lawsuit, it must have account documents about the debt before they file the case, including the amount of the debt, proof of an agreement, and an explanation about why any additional fees are justified.

The settlement offers protections to consumers Midland is collecting from even if they are not being sued. All consumers must receive accurate information about valid debts. If a consumer disputes a debt Midland is collecting, the settlement requires Midland to review original account documents before it continues its collection efforts. Midland must provide these substantiating documents to the consumer for no charge. The settlement requires Midland maintain proper oversight and training over its employees and the law firms that it uses. The agreement prohibits Midland from reselling debt for two years.

As part of the settlement, Midland will completely eliminate or reduce the judgment balances for approximately 67 Nebraska consumers for a value of $75,816 in cases where Midland used an affidavit against them in court between 2003 and 2009. In addition, Midland will set aside $25,000 per state to compensate consumers who may have paid Midland money that the consumer did not owe. Midland will notify impacted consumers by mail of the balance reduction and no further action is necessary from the consumer.

Joining Nebraska in this settlement were attorneys general from Alaska, Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

II. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO DEBT COLLECTION

Prerequisites to Collection

5. When Collecting a Debt, Midland shall not make any representation that a Consumer owes a Debt or as to the amount of a Debt, unless, at the time of making the representation, Midland has a reasonable basis for making such representation.

6. *^Midland shall not Collect or attempt to Collect any Debt allegedly owed to Midland unless it has in its possession the following information:

- a. The name and address of the Consumer as they appeared in the Seller's records at or immediately prior to the sale of the Debt;

- b. The name of the Creditor at the time of Charge-off, including, where available and applicable, the name under which the Creditor did business with the Consumer or the affinity name associated with the Consumer Account;
- c. The last four digits of the account number used by the Creditor or other information as will reasonably enable the Consumer to identify the original account;
- d. The name of the current person or entity to whom the Debt is owed and the date on which Midland first acquired the Consumer Account;
- e. The date of Charge-off (or other date, such as the date of default, as may be required by regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the Collection of Debt);
- f. If Midland reports, or intends to report, the Debt to any Credit Reporting Agency, the date of first delinquency; and
- g. The amount of the Debt at Charge-off (or other date, such as the date of default, as may be required by regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the Collection of Debt).

7. *[^]Midland shall not Collect or attempt to Collect a Debt unless it has reasonable access to documentation supporting the Consumer Accounts.

8. ^ In the following circumstances, Midland shall not make a representation that a Consumer owes a Debt or as to the amount of the Debt until Midland has reviewed Original Account-Level Documentation reflecting the Consumer's name and the claimed amount, excluding any post Charge-off or post-judgment payments or credits (unless the claimed amount is higher than the Charge-off Balance or judgment balance, in which case Midland must review (i) Original Account-Level Documentation reflecting the Charge-off Balance or judgment balance and (ii) an explanation of how the claimed amount was calculated and why such increase is authorized by the agreement relating to the Debt or permitted by law):

- a. The Consumer has disputed the validity or accuracy of the Debt orally or in writing;
- b. The Debt was purchased, after the Effective Date, through a purchase agreement without meaningful and effective representations and warranties as to the accuracy or validity of the Debt;
- c. The Debt was purchased, after the Effective Date, through a purchase agreement without meaningful and effective commitments to provide Original Account-Level Documentation during the time period in which Midland is Collecting the Debt; or
- d. The Debt was purchased in a portfolio, after the Effective Date, which Midland knows contains unsupportable or materially inaccurate information about the Debt, based on either of the following factors:

- i. At any time during the preceding twelve months, a Consumer disputed, orally or in writing, the accuracy or validity of a Debt in the portfolio and Midland sought but was unable to obtain Original Account-Level Documentation reflecting the amount of the Debt or the identity of the person responsible for the Debt, unless Midland can establish, based on a documented and thorough review of Original Account-Level Documentation concerning other Consumer Accounts in the portfolio, that the inability to obtain Original Account-Level Documentation to support the Consumer Account in the portfolio was an anomaly; or
- ii. Original Account-Level Documentation produced to Midland, by a Seller or a Consumer, reflected information about the amount of the Debt or the identity of the person responsible for the Debt that was inconsistent and irreconcilable with information previously provided to Midland by the Seller, unless Midland can establish, based on a documented and thorough review of Original Account-

Level Documentation concerning other Consumer Accounts in the portfolio, that the production of inaccurate or inconsistent information concerning the Consumer Account in the portfolio was an anomaly.

9. ^Where Midland is required to review Original Account-Level Documentation in accordance with Subsection (a) of Paragraph 8, Midland shall refrain from engaging in new attempts to Collect the Debt until Midland completes the review. Provided, however, for purposes of this Paragraph, Collecting or attempting to Collect do not include furnishing information to the Credit Reporting Agencies. Where Midland completes such a review, Midland, either directly or by use of a third party such as a Law Firm, shall provide a copy of such documentation to the Consumer without cost unless Midland has sent to the Consumer the documentation within the last six months.

10. At any time during Midland's ownership of a Debt, if Midland determines that the Debt is not owed by a Consumer, Midland shall:

- a. Cease any and all Collection efforts directed to the Consumer in connection with the Debt;
- b. Request the deletion of any negative information (or the entire trade line) associated with the Debt that Midland furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency relating to that Consumer; and
- c. If Midland returns the Debt to the Seller, Midland shall inform the Seller that it has determined that the Debt is not owed by the Consumer.

11. For Consumer Accounts on which Midland has not commenced Collection activity as of the Effective Date, Midland shall not commence Collection activity against a Consumer unless Midland has attempted, either directly or by use of a third party, to determine whether:

- a. The Debt is subject to the Consumer's active bankruptcy case or has been discharged in bankruptcy;
- b. The Consumer is deceased; and
- c. The Consumer is a service member on active duty.

Midland shall perform subsequent screening as needed, either directly or by use of a third party, to determine the Consumer Account status as set forth in this Paragraph.

12. Determination by Midland that a Consumer Account meets any of the statuses set forth in Paragraph 11 shall not prohibit Midland from Collecting on such account so long as Collections are in accordance with the law and the following terms:

- a. If a Debt is subject to bankruptcy, then Midland shall cease Collecting or attempting to Collect on the Debt from the Consumer that has filed for bankruptcy unless:
 - i. The applicable court approves Collection or attempted Collection;
 - ii. The bankruptcy is dismissed; or
 - iii. The bankruptcy is completed and the Debt is not discharged.

- b. If the Debt has been discharged in bankruptcy, then Midland shall cease attempting to Collect on the Debt from the Consumer who was subject to the bankruptcy.
- c. Subparagraphs (a) and (b) shall not be deemed to preclude Midland from filing a proof of claim or otherwise participating in the bankruptcy proceeding as a creditor and seeking such relief as the law may allow.
- d. If the Consumer(s) responsible for the Debt are deceased, Midland shall cease Collecting or attempting to Collect on the Debt unless Midland complies with the FDCPA or any regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the collection of decedents' debts; and
- e. If the individual is an active duty service member, Midland shall comply with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act and state law equivalents.

13. ^Midland shall not re-sell Debt to anyone other than (a) the entity that initially sold the Debt to Midland or to the Creditor, (b) a subsidiary or affiliate of Midland that is subject to the terms of this Assurance (either by operation of law or by agreement), (c) any entity that is subject to the terms of this Assurance as part of an acquisition or merger with Midland, or purchase of all or substantially all of Midland's assets, or (d) Midland's (or its affiliates') creditors or any agent of such creditors in settlement or satisfaction of any claims under, or in connection with the default or remedial provisions of, any relevant loan or lending agreement. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall expire on September 9, 2020. As of that date, Midland shall comply with any regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the re-sale of Debt.

14. Once Midland begins Collection activity on a Consumer Account, and continuing for so long as Midland pursues Collection activity on that Consumer Account, it will update regularly the Consumer Account information with information obtained by Midland in the course of its efforts to Collect on that Consumer Account that Midland deems material and relevant to Collections.

Notice and Validation

15. For Consumer Accounts on which Midland has not commenced Collection activity as of the Effective Date, before sending the correspondence required by 15 U.S.C. Section 1692g(a), Midland shall use reasonable efforts, such as using the United States Postal Service's National Change of Address database, to verify the Consumer's current postal or email address. If any validation notice is returned as undeliverable, Midland will disable that address, use reasonable efforts to verify the Consumer's current address, and, if found, send another validation letter to the new address.

16. *^Midland shall, no later than five days after any initial communication with a Consumer (verbal or written) made in connection with the Collection of a Debt, mail a written notice to the Consumer in accordance with 15 U.S.C. Section 1692g(a) (unless the initial communication included the below information or the debt has been paid). That notice shall include the following information:

- a. The name of the Creditor at the time of Charge-off (or other date, such as the date of default, as may be required by regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the Collection of Debt), including, where available and applicable, the name under which the Creditor did business with the Consumer or the affinity name associated with the Consumer Account;
- b. The last four digits of the account number used by the Creditor or such other information as will reasonably enable the Consumer to identify the original account;
- c. The name of the current person or entity to whom the Debt is owed and the date on which Midland first acquired the Consumer Account;
- d. The amount of the Debt at Charge-off (or other date, such as the date of default, as may be required by regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the Collection of Debt) and, if the claimed amount of the Debt is more than the Charge-off Balance (or post-default balance), a breakdown of any post-Charge-off (or post-default) fees and interest; and
- e. A clear and conspicuous statement that Midland has purchased the Debt and is attempting to Collect it from the Consumer.

Furnishing Collection Information to Consumer Reporting Agencies

17. Midland shall not furnish information to the Consumer Reporting Agencies that Midland knows or has reasonable cause to believe is inaccurate. "Reasonable cause to believe that the information is inaccurate" has the same meaning as the term is defined in section 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(a)(1)(D) of the FCRA.

Requirements Related to Personnel

18. Midland shall not knowingly employ or permit its agents, employees, representatives, Law Firms or affiliates to employ any deceptive means to Collect a Debt or obtain information concerning a Consumer.

19. Midland shall conduct background checks on all newly hired employees who are located in the United States and whose duties involve personal contact with Consumers or preparation of affidavits. Such background checks shall be carried out before the employee undertakes such duties.

20. Midland shall dedicate an appropriate number of trained representatives to resolve disputes and address questions from Consumers in a timely manner.

21. Midland shall maintain a mandatory training program for newly-hired collection representatives that covers state and federal laws, including the FDCPA, Consumer Financial Protection Act, as well as state law variations, FDCPA terminology, the legal requirements of communicating with Consumers, Midland's internal policies for compliance, the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, and the FCRA. As part of the training program, Midland will require collection representatives to pass a comprehensive examination that includes information on the FDCPA before they are assigned to permanent duties, and to also complete an annual re-examination on the FDCPA.

22. Midland shall monitor a sample of Collection calls of its account managers (i.e., call center employees) for legal compliance and training purposes and will record a sample of Collection calls to the extent permissible or feasible under applicable laws. Based on this monitoring, Midland's quality assurance team will assess the job performance of Midland's account managers and the potential need for corrective or disciplinary action.

23. ^Midland shall confirm in writing any arrangement to settle a Consumer's Debt agreed to after the Effective Date between a Consumer and Midland, or between a Consumer's representative and Midland, over the telephone, and Midland will, not later than 10 business days, mail, fax, or electronically deliver the confirmation to the Consumer or that Consumer's representative.

III. REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO COLLECTIONS LITIGATION

24. Midland, whether acting directly or indirectly through its Law Firms, shall comply with applicable state and local pleading requirements governing a good faith basis for the filing of Collection lawsuits.

25. Midland, whether acting directly or indirectly through its Law Firms, shall not make material factual assertions in documents filed with a court in Collections Litigation based on information Midland knows or has reasonable cause to believe is inaccurate. Midland shall not be deemed in violation of this Paragraph if the material factual assertions it makes in documents filed with a court comply with the relevant pleading standards applicable in that court.

The name of the Creditor at the time of Charge-off (or other date, such as the date of default, as may be required by regulations the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau may adopt regarding the Collection of Debt), including, where available and applicable, the name under which the Creditor did business with the Consumer or the affinity name associated with the Consumer Account;

Provided that, Midland has to provide such documentation upon request only once per year and Midland is not required to provide such documentation in response to a request made more than one year after Midland has ceased collecting the Debt.

28. Midland shall not restrict its Law Firms' ability to order from Midland Original Account-Level Documentation that they may request about a Debt that has been placed in Collections Litigation. Subparagraph (c) shall not apply where the lawsuit is the subject of litigation between the Consumer and Midland.

38. Midland's procedures for the generation and use of affidavits in Collections Litigation shall require, at a minimum, the following tasks of those employees who review and sign affidavits:

- a. Such employees must carefully review and fully understand any proposed affidavit prior to executing the proposed affidavit;
- b. Such employees must confirm that all of the data points in the proposed affidavit accurately reflect data in Midland's account records prior to executing the proposed affidavit;
- c. Such employees will carefully review attachments to the proposed affidavit to confirm that true and correct copies of documents contained within Midland's records are attached and are accurately described in the proposed affidavit; and
- d. Affidavits passing such review and confirmation will then be executed in the presence of a notary where required by applicable state or local law. In no event will any affidavit be executed by an affiant if it has not been through the review and confirmation procedures set forth above.

39. Midland's procedures for the generation and use of affidavits shall be in writing, and each employee who has job duties involving the preparation and signing of affidavits to be used in Collections Litigation will be trained annually on those procedures, as set forth in Paragraph 40.

40. Midland shall ensure that its affiants, both as new hires and throughout their tenure, undergo, at minimum, annual training regarding the following topics:

- a. the purpose of an affidavit in the legal process;
- b. the general legal terms commonly used in affidavits or lawsuits;
- c. specialized terms used in the collection industry;
- d. federal and state laws specific to the collection industry;
- e. requirements regarding personal review and knowledge of records; and
- f. the penalties associated with making false statements or signing affidavits without requisite personal knowledge of account records.

41. Midland, whether directly or through Law Firms, shall not knowingly file, or knowingly cause to be filed, affidavits that do not comply with applicable state law. Midland will instruct its Law Firms that affidavits filed in Collection lawsuits shall fully comply with all applicable state laws, and take appropriate steps to ensure that such instructions are carried out and document steps taken to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Assurance.

V. REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO TIME-BARRED DEBT

42. Midland shall not knowingly pursue or threaten to pursue, directly or indirectly, Collections Litigation on any Time-barred Consumer Accounts.

43. ^Midland, whether directly or through Law Firms or other third parties, shall disclose clearly and conspicuously the following disclosures regarding the statute of limitations in oral or written communications to applicable Consumers, depending on the following specific status of the Consumer Account:

- a. For those Consumer Accounts where the Debt is Time-barred and generally cannot be included in a consumer report under the provisions of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(a), Midland, whether directly or through Law Firms or other third parties, shall include the following statement, either verbatim or in substance, in any oral or written Collection attempt: “The law limits how long you can be sued on a debt and how long a debt can appear on your credit report. Due to the age of this debt, we will not sue you for it or report payment or non-payment of it to a credit bureau;” and
- b. For those Consumer Accounts where the Debt is Time-barred but collectible, and may be included in a consumer report under the provisions of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(a), Midland, whether directly or through Law Firms or other third parties, will include the following statement, either verbatim or in substance, in any oral or written Collection attempt: “The law limits how long you can be sued on a debt. Because of the age of your debt, we will not sue you for it.”

Provided, however, that with regard to oral communications, Midland is not required to make either disclosure to any individual person more than once per 30-day period. Midland will be deemed to have complied with the disclosure requirements of this Paragraph if it makes a disclosure to Consumers that is substantially similar to the disclosure required by this Paragraph.

44. ^Midland shall not, directly or indirectly through a Law Firm or other third parties, make any representation or statement, or take any other action that interferes with, detracts from, contradicts, or otherwise undermines the disclosures required in Paragraph 43 above. Nothing contained in paragraphs 43 or 44 shall be construed to require Midland to make any disclosure that would otherwise be prohibited by, or create liability under, federal, state or local law; and nothing contained in paragraphs 43 or 44 shall be construed to prohibit Midland from making any disclosure that would otherwise be required by, or to avoid liability under, federal, state or local law.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES

45. Midland shall employ legal counsel, compliance officer(s), and/or other senior manager(s) responsible for compliance oversight, who will identify reasonably foreseeable internal and external violations of applicable laws by its employees and agents.

46. All new Law Firms engaged by Midland after the Effective Date shall be subject to a due diligence process, which will include a site visit by a member of Midland's vendor management team (or equivalent). All Law Firms active as of the Effective Date will be also subject to regular performance reviews for so long as they are engaged in Collections Litigation.

47. Midland shall create, to the extent not already in existence, policies and procedures reasonably expected to ensure compliance with this Assurance.

48. Should Midland learn that any Midland employee, Law Firm, third-party collection agency, or other agent acting on its behalf, is acting in violation of the law or the requirements of this Assurance, Midland shall take such action as may be reasonable to prevent further violation, up to and including the termination of any individual or agent that is in violation of the law or this Assurance.

49. In lieu of any steps required by this Assurance as a prerequisite to any Collection efforts, Midland may, at its option, choose not to pursue Collection efforts on any given Consumer Account.

50. No later than 30 days after the Effective Date of this Assurance, Midland shall deliver a copy of this Assurance to all of its current officers, directors, third-party collection agencies, and Law Firms (current as of the Effective Date).

VII. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

51. Before seeking any relief from any court for any alleged violation of this Assurance, and if in the discretion of the State, the lack of immediate enforcement action will not threaten the health, safety, or welfare of the citizens of their State, the State will give Midland written notice of the alleged violation. Midland shall then be provided the opportunity to respond to the State regarding the alleged violation within a period of ten (10) business days after the written notice is received. Within that ten (10) business day period, Midland may request a meeting to discuss the alleged violation. If Midland makes such a request, the State shall meet with Midland, either by phone or in person, at the earliest possible date, but in no event more than ten (10) business days from the date of Midland's request. The State and Midland agree to attempt to resolve any alleged violation of this Assurance through good-faith negotiation using the procedure described herein prior to the State initiating any action for enforcement.

52. In the event that any statute or regulation pertaining to the subject matter of this Assurance is modified, enacted, promulgated or interpreted by any State with respect to its own laws, or by the federal government or any federal agency, such that Midland contends the statute or regulation is in conflict with any provision of this Assurance and therefore that Midland cannot comply with both the statute or regulation and the provision of this Assurance, Midland shall provide advance written notice of at least thirty (30) days to the State of the inconsistent provision of the statute or regulation with which Midland intends to comply and of the counterpart provision of this Assurance that Midland contends is in conflict with the statute or regulation. If the State disagrees, that State shall, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Midland's notice, notify Midland that the State does not agree there is a conflict between the requirements of the Assurance and the state or federal law. Any court orders modifying the Assurance in one or more states do not in any way affect the validity or enforceability of the Assurance entered in other states, and cannot be used to support modification of the Assurance in other states. Nothing in this Paragraph shall be deemed to relieve Midland from following any subsequently enacted law that is more restrictive than the provisions of this Assurance, or from following this Assurance if it is more restrictive than applicable laws, to the extent Midland can adhere to both this Assurance and the provisions of state or federal law.

53. To seek a modification of this Assurance for any reason, Midland will send a request to the State. The State will make a good-faith evaluation of the then-existing circumstances and Midland's request, and after collecting any information the State deems necessary, make a prompt decision as to whether to agree to the modification of this Assurance. In the event that the State timely denies the modification request, Midland reserves all rights to pursue any legal or equitable remedies that may be available to it.

VIII. ENFORCEMENT

54. By execution of this Assurance, the Attorney General of each State releases and forever discharges Midland as well as Midland's past and present directors, employees, officers, shareholders, agents and attorneys ("Released Parties") from the following: all common law and other civil law claims that arise under any statute, regulation, or other law that the Attorney General of such State has authority to enforce, and that relate to consumer protection, unfair and deceptive business practices, the purchase and/or collection of debts (including but not limited to laws related to registration, licensing, or certification to engage in debt purchasing and/or debt collection), and/or the enforcement of judgments (all of which shall be deemed to include, without limitation, the Dodd-Frank Act, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and the Fair Credit Reporting Act) insofar as such claims relate to Midland's Collection activities, up to and including the Effective Date of this Assurance (collectively, the "Released Claims").

55. Nothing in this Assurance shall impair any private right of action as provided by federal or state law or any action by any other local, state, federal, governmental agency; nor shall this Assurance create any right of action in any person or entity, except that the Attorney General in each of the Participating States shall have the right to seek enforcement of this Assurance.

IX. PAYMENT PROVISIONS

Payment Other Than Consumer Relief

56. Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date of this Assurance, Midland shall pay $6,000,000 to the States. At the sole discretion of the Attorneys General, the payment shall be used for reimbursement of attorneys' fees and/or investigative costs, used for future public protection purposes, placed in or applied to the consumer protection enforcement fund, consumer education, litigation, or local consumer aid fund or revolving fund, or similar fund by whatever name, or used for other consumer protection purposes permitted by state or local statutes, rules, or regulations.

Consumer Relief

57. Upon full execution of this Assurance,

- a. Midland shall internally set aside $25,000 per State to be available for restitution for Consumer redress. Notwithstanding Midland's express denial of any violation of local, state or federal law, rule or regulation, for a period of two years from the Effective Date, a State may submit a claim for restitution to Midland demonstrating a prima facie showing that, as a result of Collection efforts undertaken by Midland:

- i. Midland submitted an affidavit in support of a Collection lawsuit against a Consumer where the amounts allegedly owed by the Consumer reflected in the affidavit did not

- accurately reflect Midland's account records related to that Consumer's Debt at the time of execution of the affidavit;
- ii. A Consumer of the State made a payment to Midland on a Debt that was not actually owed by the Consumer, and which was not refunded; or
 - iii. A Consumer of the State made a payment to Midland in excess of that which was owed by the Consumer, and which was not refunded.

Upon any such occurrence, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the State's claim for restitution, Midland will refund to the Consumer an amount equal to the Consumer's overpayment, unless Midland provides information within that thirty (30) day period that raises a question of fact regarding the validity of that claim. If such evidence is provided by Midland, the State submitting the claim will have thirty (30) days to evaluate the claim in good faith. The State's decision, however, will be final and binding on Midland. After two years from the date of the full execution of this Assurance, or at the time that the $25,000 fund set aside by Midland for the State has been exhausted, whichever comes first, Midland's obligations under this provision shall terminate.

- b. Midland shall provide a credit to the outstanding balance of the judgment up to $1,850 to each Consumer where: (i) the judgment was taken in a court in a Participating State; (ii) the Consumer disputed the Debt with Midland; (iii) Midland filed a Collection lawsuit against the Consumer after the Consumer disputed the Debt with Midland and a Law Firm requested an affidavit from Midland to support the lawsuit between January 1, 2003 and September 14, 2009; and (iv) the Consumer never made a payment to Midland in connection with the Debt. If the amount of the credit would extinguish the outstanding balance of the judgment, Midland shall apply only such amount as will reduce the balance to zero and no refund shall be due. The credits provided by Midland under this subparagraph: (a) shall not renew or extend the period within which the underlying judgments remain valid and subject to enforcement by legal process; and (b) represent settlements, by Midland and the Participating States, of contested liabilities that were disputed in good faith by the Attorneys General of the Participating States on behalf of the Consumers who receive the credits.
- c. Consumer relief under this Paragraph does not cover accounts or Debts owned by any subsidiaries of Encore Capital Group before the subsidiaries were acquired by Encore Capital Group.
- d. In addition, within 90 days of the Effective Date, Midland shall send notice to all Consumers whose accounts receive a credit under Paragraph 57(b) of the Agreement informing them of the credit. That notice shall be sent to such Consumers' last known mail address or last known email address, as appearing in the records of Midland. Within 120 days of the Effective Date, Midland shall provide the Attorney General of each Participating State a spreadsheet showing the identity of the Consumers in that State who received the credit and the amount of the credit provided.

X. GENERAL PROVISIONS

58. Midland shall not seek, nor is it entitled to obtain, specific releases from Consumers in conjunction with the restitution ordered herein or related to this Assurance.

59. Any notices required or permitted by this Assurance shall be in writing and sent by United States mail, certified mail return receipt requested, or other nationally-recognized courier service that provides for tracking services and identification of the person signing for the document. Any notice to any Attorney General shall be addressed to such contact and address as the Attorney General shall designate.

Any notices or other documents required by this Assurance to be sent to Midland shall be sent to both of the following addresses:

Either Party may change or add the name and address or addresses of the person(s) designated to receive notice on its behalf by notice given (effective upon the giving of such notice), as provided in this Paragraph.

60. Midland shall designate one or more management-level employees to be the primary contact for the Signatory Attorneys General regarding complaints and inquiries from Consumers regarding their Debt. Midland shall provide the Attorney General or Consumer a written response to such inquiries, or seek from the Attorney General additional time to respond, within forty-five (45) days after Midland receives the inquiry from the Attorney General.

61. Midland's assurance to undertake the obligations described herein shall not be construed as evidence that such steps are necessary to comply with any statute, regulation or other rule of law of any State or the United States of America, nor shall such Assurance be construed as evidence that such measures did not exist at Midland prior to the execution of this Assurance, nor shall this Assurance otherwise prejudice the position of Midland with respect to whether it has complied with any statute, regulation or other rule of law of the State.

62. Each of the Parties is represented by counsel who participated in the drafting of this Assurance shall be deemed to have been mutually drafted by the Parties and shall not be construed against either Party as the author thereof.

63. Nothing in this Assurance shall be construed to authorize or require any action by Midland in violation of applicable federal, state or other laws.

64. The titles or headings to each section or provision of this Assurance are for convenience purposes only and are not intended by the parties to lend meaning to the actual provisions of this Assurance.

65. If any clause, provision, or section of this Assurance shall, for any reason, be held illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, such illegality, invalidity, or unenforceability shall not affect any other clause, provision, or section of this Assurance, and this Assurance shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable clause, section, or other provision had not been contained herein.

66. Nothing contained herein, and no act required to be performed hereunder, including, but not limited to, the provision of information and/or material, is intended to require the disclosure by Midland of any communication by and between any officer, director, employee, agent or consultant of Midland and any person retained to provide Midland with legal advice, or otherwise, to constitute, cause or effect any waiver (whether by subject matter, in whole, or in part) of: (a) attorney-client privilege, work product protection, ~~common law~~ defense privilege and/or any other applicable privilege; or (b) confidential, proprietary or trade secret exception under each States' public records laws.

67. Nothing contained in this Assurance shall be construed to diminish the post-investigation obligations undertaken by the States in the course of their investigation of Midland (including but not necessarily limited to the post-investigation obligations set forth in the Confidentiality Agreement executed by Midland and the members of the Executive Committee in October 2012). Said obligations shall survive the execution of this Assurance and shall continue to be in effect. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to diminish any confidentiality obligations arising under state law with respect to materials or information obtained during the course of said investigation. Any documents provided to the States under the terms of this Assurance shall be treated in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement that was executed by Midland and the members of the Executive Committee in October 2012.

68. This Assurance supersedes and nullifies the terms of any prior Tolling Order executed between Midland and any of the States during this investigation.

69. Notwithstanding any provision of this Assurance, Midland is not required to refuse to accept any payments voluntarily submitted by Consumers; suspend Collections for Consumers who have acknowledged the Debt and agreed to make payments, or refuse to communicate with a Consumer who affirmatively contacts Midland (or Midland's agents) or requests contact from Midland (or Midland's agents) to discuss the Consumer Account.

70. This Assurance shall be effective upon the Effective Date, except that the obligations of Paragraphs 10(c), 16, 27(b), and 47 shall not take effect until 60 days after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations imposed by this Assurance by Paragraphs 6, 7, and 16 shall not apply to any Legacy Accounts.³

71. Paragraphs 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 16, 23, 26, 27, 43, and 44 shall terminate September 9, 2020.⁴

³ *Indicates that paragraph will not apply to Legacy Accounts

⁴ ^Indicates that paragraph will sunset

72. Except for Midland's obligations to credit judgments, as set forth in Paragraph 57(b), nothing contained herein shall be deemed to apply to any act or omission by Midland (i) with respect to any natural person who is not a resident of a Participating State at the time of such act or omission; or (ii) with respect to Collections Litigation in any court outside of the Participating States.

73. Midland shall ensure that any entities acquired by Midland subsequent to the Effective Date are brought into compliance with the applicable terms of this Assurance within one year after the closing of the acquisition transaction.

74. Midland shall not participate directly or indirectly in any activity or form a separate entity or corporation for the purpose of engaging in acts or practices in whole or in part that are prohibited by this Assurance or for any other purpose that would otherwise circumvent any part of this Assurance.

75. Midland shall not represent directly or indirectly or in any way whatsoever imply that the State has sanctioned, condoned, or approved any part or aspect of Midland's business practices, current efforts to reform its practices, or any further practices that Midland may adopt or consider adopting.

76. This Assurance does not constitute an admission by Midland of any fact or any violation of any local, state or federal law, rule or regulation, and Midland expressly denies any such violation. Midland enters into this Assurance for settlement purposes only. This Assurance is made without trial or adjudication of any issues of fact or law other than those finding that Midland was engaged in trade or commerce. This Assurance does not constitute evidence or admission of any issues of fact or law.

77. The provisions of this Assurance, stating that Midland shall perform a certain action or engage in certain practices or conduct itself in a certain manner (e.g., comply with various statutes), shall not be construed to imply that Midland did not perform that action or engage in that practice or conduct itself in that manner before the execution of this Assurance. Likewise, the provisions of this Assurance, stating that Midland shall not perform a certain action or engage in certain practices or conduct itself in a certain manner, shall not be construed to imply that Midland performed that action, or engaged in that practice, or conducted itself in that manner before the execution of this Assurance.
