

Attorney General Doug Peterson

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 11, 2017

Lincoln—On Wednesday, September 13, 2017, Nebraska Attorney General Doug Peterson will be hosting Mobile Office hours with several members of his staff at the North Platte Senior Center (901 East 10th St.) from 9 am to 4 pm.

The Attorney General will visit the senior center from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm. Afterward, he will be spending the day with local officials, law enforcement, and students in the area.

During Mobile Office hours, representatives from both the Consumer Protection Division and Constituent Services will be on hand to personally meet citizens interested in submitting concerns to the Attorney General's office. Citizens will also have the opportunity to learn how to protect themselves from identity theft, guard against scams and rid themselves of unwanted calls. Many educational resources will be made available to interested constituents.

Any questions regarding Mobile Office should be directed to Suzanne Gage, Director of Communications.
