

Consumer Alert

Nebraska Attorney General's Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 3, 2025

LINCOLN--The Nebraska Attorney General's Office is notifying consumers of a fraudulent text message circulating claiming to be from the Nebraska Department of Revenue. The message states that your tax refund request has been processed and approved and instructs you to provide payment information via a suspicious link that you must activate by replying on your mobile device.

The Attorney General's Office urges do not follow the instructions provided, do not click on any links, or reply to the message in any way.

For legitimate tax refund information, visit the official Nebraska Department of Revenue website at <https://revenue.nebraska.gov/>.

Key Warning Signs of this Scam

- The sender is an unknown international number.
- The URL is not an official Nebraska government site.
- The message pressures you with an urgent deadline or risk loss of refund.

Recommended Actions

- Do not click on any links.
- Do not reply to the message.
- Do not follow the instructions provided.
- Delete the message from your device.

Consumers are advised to remain vigilant, as scammers frequently impersonate government agencies to steal personal and financial information.

For more information, contact the Attorney General's Consumer Affairs Response Team at 402-471-2682 or visit ProtectTheGoodLife.Nebraska.gov.

###

Suzanne Gage
Director of Communications
Nebraska Attorney General's Office
Office: 402-471-2656
Mobile: 402-560-3518
Suzanne.gage@nebraska.gov